Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [87]. As the motion states, the parties are working toward a resolution of this matter but require a bit more time to finalize a plea agreement. Under the circumstances, good cause has been shown for one more continuance. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [87] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for February 12, 2024, is continued to April 22, 2024.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and April 22, 2024, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances and without first requesting a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: February 7, 2024.

BY THE COURT:

United States Magistrate Judge
